KALENVE AND HER FAITHFUL FRIEND

How to Read Kalenve

Five roads into the Reaches

This book can be read aloud, listened to on the road, or opened quietly on your own. Choose your road.

CHOOSE YOUR ROAD

1 AT HOME, ALOUD

Morning, warm light, one chapter. Stop at the most exciting spot and let it wait until tomorrow.

2 ON A HIKE, BY THE FIRE

Read where there is water, forest or a campfire nearby. Fire only under an adult's watch.

3 ON THE ROAD, LISTENING

Record the chapters in your own voice. One chapter is one stretch of road. The driver only needs to listen.

4 ON YOUR OWN

A scroll bookmark and a traveler's diary: what did I hear today?

5 TOGETHER, IN ROLES

One reads Kalenve, the other reads Vilkaus, and the Ant speaks by tapping.

- Tuk-tuk means "careful"
- Tuk-tuk-tuk means "I am with you"
- If you feel afraid, stop and lay your hands one on top of another, like Kalenve's team

★ REMEMBER ★

One chapter, one stop.
Read slowly, the way the Ant walks.
A scary part can be reread by daylight.
READ. LISTEN. GO ON.

Find those who will not let you fall. And become that for someone else.
